- B. Provide opportunity for the exchange of ideas and information on leadership practices
- C. Encourage the spirit of unity and cooperation among NMA members and within their organizations and communities
- D. Encourage the understanding of our free enterprise system
- E. Encourage all NMA members to practice and be lifelong advocates of NMA Code of Ethics and Statement of Principles

Section 2. Restrictions – NMA shall be non-profit, non-political, non-partisan, and non-sectarian. Further, it shall not engage in collective bargaining on behalf of members or others. It shall function within the meaning of Section 501(c) 6 of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of the assets or net earnings of the NMA shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its Directors, Officers, or other individuals, except that the NMA shall be authorized to reimburse for costs actually incurred with preapproval from the Finance Committee or for the NMA affecting one or more of its purposes. Further, no Director, Officer, or any other individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any NMA assets on the dissolution of NMA.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1. Members – The purposes of NMA shall be promoted and carried forward by members to ensure NMA’s continued growth and existence.
- Section 2. Eligibility – Membership is offered through individual or chapter affiliation. The Executive Committee of NMA establishes the policy and rules for individual membership and chartering and approving chapters affiliating with NMA. It is the policy of NMA to let each chapter determine its own membership eligibility standards.
- Section 3. Authority – All Members are entitled to such rights and privileges as are defined in the bylaws.

ARTICLE IV – OFFICERS

- Section 1. Officers – NMA’ s Elected Officers shall serve as the officers of NMA and are the Chairman of the Board, Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary. The election process and officer duties are identified in the NMA Bylaws.

ARTICLE V – ORGANIZATION

- Section 1. Authority – NMA shall be governed by this Constitution which is approved by affiliated chapters or their designated representatives.
- Section 2. Board of Directors – The policy making body of NMA shall be the Board of Directors.
- A. Members –The Board shall consist of NMA members who serve as a Director by filling out and submitting a signed petition to NMA Headquarters for a 1 or 3 year term.
  - B. Authority – The Bylaws provide for the governance of NMA and are approved by the Board of Directors.
- Section 3. Executive Committee – The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors makes decisions and policies governing the administration and management of NMA’ s activities. It develops NMA operations policy.
- A. Executive Committee Members – The Executive Committee shall consist of a core group including the elected Officers, the NMA Executive Director, and Immediate Past Chairman. Others may be required as defined in the Bylaws.

- B. Authority – The Policy and Procedure Manual (PPM), approved by the Executive Committee, guide the day-to-day operations of NMA activities.
- Section 4. NMA Executive Director – NMA’s activities shall be directed and administered by the NMA Executive Director who is appointed by the Executive Committee subject to approval of the Board of Directors.
- A. Authority – Using the PPM as a guide the NMA Executive Director administers operating policies and reports progress and provides guidance to the Executive Committee and Board of Directors.
- Section 5. Area Chairs - The Area Chairs shall direct and coordinate the member and chapter service activities of the Directors within their geographical area defined in the Bylaws.
- Section 6. Standing Committees – The Standing Committees are defined in the Bylaws and chairs of those committees are appointed by the Chairman of the Board.
- Section 7. Special Committees – The Executive Committee may establish special and ad-hoc committees as needed and in accordance with the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI – ELECTIONS

- Section 1. Officers – The Chairman of the Board, Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be elected by the Board of Directors in accordance with the election process outlined in the Bylaws.
- Section 2. Area Chairs – Area Chairs are elected in accordance with the election process outlined in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII – MEETINGS

- Section 1. Board and Executive Committee Meetings – The Board of Directors and the Executive Committee shall meet three times each year. One of the meetings will be held in conjunction with NMA’s Annual Conference.
- A. Voting Body – Members of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee constitute the voting body at any Board or Executive Committee meeting.
  - B. Quorum – A majority of the members of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business for these bodies.
- Section 2. Special Meetings – The Chairman of the Board shall have the authority to call a special meeting or teleconference of either the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee provided the conditions identified in the Bylaws are followed. Only such business identified in the call for the meeting shall be considered.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Parliamentary Authority - The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern NMA in all cases which are not covered by the Constitution, Bylaws, and PPM.

Constitution – This Constitution shall be adopted or amended at a regular or special meeting of chapter delegates by a two-thirds vote of the total votes cast by chapter's authorized delegates under the rules of this Constitution provided that:

- A. At least two-thirds of chapters in good standing have transmitted the amendment(s) in writing to NMA Headquarters and the submitted amendment(s) is signed by the Secretary of each of the chapters, or
- B. The Board of Directors has recommended and approved the amendment(s) by a two-thirds vote.

A notice of the proposed amendment(s) will be sent to the President and Secretary of each affiliated chapter, at least 30 days in advance of the meeting where the amendment(s) is presented.

Section 2. Mail/Email Vote – In the event a meeting cannot be held, this Constitution shall be adopted or amended by mail/email vote to the chapters, in accordance with the above provision. A majority of votes cast shall be necessary to carry the proposed action, provided at least twenty-five percent of affiliated chapters in good standing respond. A mail/email vote can be ordered by either:

- A. At least two-thirds of chapters in good standing, certified in writing and signed by the Secretary of each of the chapters, or
- B. By a majority vote of the NMA Board of Directors

Notification of the mail/email vote shall specify the deadline date of tabulation. All chapters shall be notified of the vote result.

ARTICLE IX – CONTINGENCIES

Section 1. Indemnity - The Management Association agrees to indemnify its Officers and Directors against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them or any one of them in connection with the defense of any pending or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, criminal or civil, to which he or she may be made a party by reason of having been such Officer or Director, provided:

- A. They, he, or she is adjudicated or determined not to have been negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of their, his, or her duty as an Officer or Director of the National Management Association.
- B. They, he, or she is determined to have acted in good faith in what they, he, or she reasonably believes to be the best interest of the organization.
- C. In any manner the subject of a criminal action, suit, or proceeding, they, he, or she is determined to have had no reasonable cause to believe that they, his, or her conduct was unlawful.

The determination as to matters contained in subparagraphs (2) and (3), and in the absence of an adjudication as to the content of subparagraph (1) by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be made by the Directors of the National Management Association, acting at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of Directors who are party to or threatened with any such action, suit, or proceeding shall not be qualified to vote; and if for this reason a quorum of directors cannot be obtained to vote on such indemnification, such determination shall be made by a party or parties to be selected by the Directors who are qualified to vote as above set forth, but no party shall be an Officer or Director of the National Management Association.

Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Officers or Directors may be entitled under the Constitution and Bylaws of the National Management Association.

Section 2. Dissolution – NMA shall not dissolve nor surrender its charter of incorporation to the State of Ohio except as directed by a vote of at least seventy-five percent of the voting members of the Board of Directors. Upon dissolution of NMA, all of its assets and property of every nature and description remaining after the payment of all liabilities and obligations of NMA, but not including assets held by NMA upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance (which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution), shall be transferred to such an organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or professional purposes and which are then qualified for exemption from federal income taxes as an organization or organizations described in Section 501 (c) (3) Section 501 (c) (4) or 501 (c) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 3. Emergency Provision – In the event of a national emergency or disaster, the elected Officers along with NMA's Staff shall have full power to act in the best interests of the NMA and its members.

Section 4. International - Chapter affiliates outside the United States shall be assigned to geographical areas by the Board of Directors, for instance Singapore and Canada.

Section 5. Councils - Councils may be formed when affiliated chapters desire to organize and strengthen the chapters, to serve as centers of information and training, or to further any of the purposes of the NMA. Upon submitting an application, the Council shall be granted a charter in the NMA.

ARTICLE IV - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Qualifications – Chapter or individual members in good standing who have the necessary time and financial support are eligible to serve as a Director. A fully signed Director petition for a 1 or 3-year term needs to be submitted to NMA Headquarters.

Section 2. Director Call to Service - The Nominating Committee shall send a message by June 30, to all chapters, Directors and individual members inviting NMA members, in good standing, to serve as a Director or as an Associate Director.

- Section 3. Petitions - In order to fill a Director position for a 1 or 3-year term, a NMA member in good standing needs to complete and submit a Director petition to NMA Headquarters. For an affiliated chapter member, the petition requires a signature from the chapter President, the member's Supervisor, an executive of the organization and the signature of the member. An individual member only needs his/her signature on the petition.
- Section 4. Authority - The authority of the Board of Directors shall be as provided in the Constitution.
- Section 5. Duties - Each Director shall be assigned one or more chapters along with being assigned a portion of the individual members located in their geographic area to represent and advise on matters of policy, programs, activities, and services of the NMA. Directors shall assist chapter officers and individual members; aid new chapters in qualifying for affiliation; submit monthly reports to the Area Chair; attend three board meetings each year, perform such other duties as requested by the Chairman of the Board.
- Section 6. Change in Director Status -
- A. Disbanded Chapter - If a Director is no longer a member of a chapter as a result of the chapter disbanding or disaffiliating, the person may continue to serve as a Director until the expiration of his/her term, provided the person continues to maintain his/her status as an individual member in good standing.
  - B. Changes in Employment – If a Director leaves his / her sponsoring chapter / company, the person may continue to serve as a Director until the expiration of his/her term, provided the person continues to maintain his/her status as a chapter member, if possible, or as an individual member in good standing.
- Section 7. Director Removal - The Board of Directors may remove and replace a Director for irregular attendance at board meetings or failure to fulfill his/her responsibilities. Any Director who is removed may appeal this decision following the process in the PPM. If a Director appeals the decision and their removal from their Director's position then the removal will not be effective until completion of the appeal process, otherwise they will be removed immediately following the decision of the Board of Directors to have them removed and replaced.
- Section 8. Associate Director - An Associate Director may be assigned to assist the regularly assigned Director in serving one or more of the chapters in the area. Associate Directors must possess the same qualifications as a Director and need to submit an Associate Director data form to NMA headquarters. Associate Directors are non-voting members of the Board of Directors and are not eligible to serve on standing or special committees.
- Section 9. Lifetime Directors - An individual who has served a full term as NMA Volunteer President (Pre-1983), Chairman of the Board or an IMC President shall be designated a Lifetime Director.

ARTICLE V - ELECTED OFFICERS AND AREA CHAIRS

Section 1. Officers - The Elected Officers of NMA shall be the Chairman of the Board, Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary.

Section 2. Nomination Process -

- A. Candidate Names - The Nomination Committee shall send an announcement electronically, no later than June 1, soliciting candidate names for the positions of Chairman of the Board, Vice Chair, Treasurer and Secretary from NMA Directors and Lifetime Directors along with candidate names for all six Area Chair positions. Once the names are received (by July 12), the candidates are notified and they need to verify that they are committed to run for the nominated position by submitting a completed nomination petition to NMA headquarters along with a picture and a paragraph describing their qualifications.

In the event that only one individual is nominated for a National Officer position and that individual declines, the Nominating Committee Chair will inform the Board of Directors of the situation and request new nominations for that office.

Individuals having already submitted a petition for another National Office position may withdraw that petition and ask to be considered a nominee for the newly open office.

In the event that this office now becomes vacant of nominees, the Nominating Committee Chair will request additional nominations from the Board of Directors until all offices have at least one nominee on the ballot.

- B. Nomination Petitions -Petitions along with a picture and a paragraph describing their qualifications for elected Officers and Area Chairs shall be submitted to NMA headquarters at least three (3) weeks prior to the beginning of the annual conference. The resulting names, pictures and qualifications for the elected Officer positions shall form a slate of Officers to be elected by all Directors and Lifetime Directors electronically. The Area Chair candidates shall be elected by Directors from their respective areas also electronically. No individual may be a candidate for more than one elected office in any fiscal year. Exceptions to this restriction shall be approved by the Board of Directors only if there are no qualified candidates for an elected office.

Section 3. Election – Officers & Area Chairs -

- A. Election Process - The names of elected Officer Candidates along with a picture and a paragraph describing their qualifications shall be presented to all Directors and Lifetime Directors on an electronic ballot at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting of the Board of Directors at the annual conference. Electronic voting for each Officer shall continue until 6:00 PM the day before the start of the general board meeting. All eligible Directors and Lifetime Directors shall be able to cast their electronic ballots during the voting period. The candidate receiving a majority of votes shall be deemed elected.

Area Chair candidates shall be presented to Directors in their respective areas also on an electronic ballot at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting of the Board of Directors at the annual conference. The electronic voting for the Area Chair candidates shall continue until 6:00 PM the day before the start of the area meetings. All eligible area Directors shall be able to cast their electronic ballots during the voting period.

The candidate receiving a majority of votes shall be deemed elected.

In the event no elected Officer or Area Chair candidate receives a majority of the vote, the candidate with the lowest number of votes is removed from the ballot; a re-vote is held for the remaining candidates on a paper ballot by the Directors and Lifetime Directors present at the annual conference.

This process continues until an elected officer or area chair candidate receives a majority of votes.

- B. Election Requirements - Elected Officers and Area Chair candidates shall be members in good standing on the Board of Directors. All candidates shall have had at least one year of service as a Director prior to assuming office, unless otherwise specified by the Executive Committee.
- C. Election Results - Only the names of those elected will be announced by the Immediate Past Chairman. The actual vote count will be made available to candidates who ask to see the results.
- D. Chairman of the Board, Vice Chair, Treasurer and Secretary – The elected Officers shall serve for a term of one year, limited to two full consecutive elected terms or until their successors have been elected.
- E. Area Chairs - The geographical areas established by the Board of Directors shall be used to elect Area Chairs. They shall serve for a term of one year, limited to two full consecutive elected terms, or until their successors have been elected. In the event of a vacancy, the Chairman of the Board may appoint the Area Chair.

Section 4. Duties of Officers –

- A. The Chairman of the Board shall preside over the annual meeting and the meetings of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors; shall appoint the Chairs of all committees; and shall make interim appointments as necessary.

- B. The Vice Chair shall preside in the absence of the Chairman of the Board and shall lead the planning committee.
  - C. The Treasurer shall preside in the absence of the Vice Chair and monitor the financial policies and operations of NMA and educational foundation and lead the finance committee.
  - D. The Secretary shall review all NMA meeting minutes, lead the Policy Committee and manage the action item list.
- The Officers shall perform other duties as described in the PPM.
- E. The Immediate Past Chairman of the Board shall preside over the nominating committee and any other committees as requested by the Chairman of the Board.

Section 5. Duties of Area Chairs – Area Chairs shall direct and coordinate the field service activities of the Directors within the area as defined in the Bylaws.

Section 6. Vacancies –

- A. Chairman of the Board - In the event of a vacancy for any reason, the Vice Chairman shall become Chairman of the Board for the unexpired term.
- B. Other Offices - Any vacancy in the other offices shall be filled for the unexpired term from the membership of the Board of Directors by the Executive Committee. Such member shall have been a member of the Board of Directors for a minimum of one year prior to appointment.
- C. Area Chairs - In the event of a vacancy, the Chairman of the Board may appoint the Area Chair.
- D. Immediate Past Chairman - In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of the Immediate Past Chairman, the Chairman of the Board shall appoint a previous past chairman to fill that vacancy.

Section 7. Term - Officers shall be elected for a term of one (1) year and shall take office.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition - The Executive Committee shall be composed of a core group including the Chairman of the Board, Vice Chair, Treasurer, Secretary, Immediate Past Chairman of the Board, and the NMA Executive Director. The Executive Committee may appoint other members to the committee as needed.
